DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Asou et al. [Examiner's Note: Col. 4, lines 63-67, col. 5, lines 21-31].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Asou et al. in view of the Japanese patent. Asou et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the duct being inclined downward. It would have been obvious matter of design choice for the second duct of Asou et al. to be inclined downward since such is dictated by the inclination of the vehicle or the positioning of the existing structural element therein.
5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Asou et al. in view of Upham, III. Asou et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the distribution fins. Upham, III teaches that it is known to provide an outlet with a directional member as set forth at column 3, lines 40-44. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the outlet of Asou et al. with the distribution fins, as taught by Upham, III in order to direct the air.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Priority

7. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note, Smith, column 4, lines 50-53.
